

CHANAKYA QUIZ COMPETITION

Knowledge is the power.....

An exciting business Quiz Competition was conducted at D Y Patil Institute of Management, Ambi on 11th September 2018 by the MBA first year students under the guidance of Dr. Anand Wadekar which was graced by the presence of Hon. Director, Dr. Varsha Bihade as well all the faculty members. Students from MBA and MCA were the enthusiastic audience to witness the event.

Quiz competitions have always been exciting and informative for the students as it enhances their knowledge into various dimensions. The “Chanakya Quiz Competition” was divided into 5 rounds and 7 participants, among which 2 were replaceable from other teams. Every round was a mixed bag of questions from different backgrounds especially from business and current affairs.

Initially the rules and regulations of the competition were explained briefly clearing their doubts. The team was named as FACT HUNTERS, RAMPAGE, GAME CHANGERS, and 7 STARS. All the participants were on the edge of their spaces to give the right answers and they were very active throughout the competition. The question put forth to the teams were very exciting and interesting which also made the audience applaud loudly and even they were being given the chance to answer the question which the team were failed to provide.

First few rounds were the general rounds where they were asked questions related to business world which was being followed by the visual round where they were shown the pictures of big personalities and the respective teams were supposed to identify them with the name. Identification of logo and company symbols was also conducted and surprisingly all the teams performed wonderfully well.

At the end, buzzer round was being organized and the team who gave the quickest response was able to score higher. Thus the program gave an amazing learning experience to all the aspiring students. Finally, Team RAMPAGE won the game leaving behind the other teams and was declared the winner of CHANKYA QUIZ COMPETITION.

After the competition ceremony, students clicked the photograph with all the members making it a memorable event.

To bring this program to a close, Dr. Anand Wadekar gave a beautiful speech encouraging the students to participate in all the activities and making it a great success. Thus, D Y PATIL INSTITUTE OF MANAGEMENT, AMBI believes in bringing out the best in the students by encouraging them to focus on outside learning rather than just focusing only on the classroom teachings and subject related knowledge.

Let the whole world light up with your knowledge.....
