

GUEST LECTURE ON CAREERS IN FINANCE

Event Title: - Guest Lecture on “Careers in Finance”

Date: - 19th September 2018

Conduction Duration: 1 hour

One Day Venue: MBA Building Seminar Hall

Resource Person: Dr. (CA) Assema Dake Kulkarni

Objectives:

1. To teach Student about Importance of Financial aspects.
2. To make Aware about various career options into Finance.

D Y Patil Institute of Management, Ambi conducted a guest lecture on Careers in Finance for MBA aspirants who are planning their career into the different domains. Dr. (CA) Aseema Dake Kulkarni was the guest speaker of the day, who gave an enriching, informative and detailed presentation on various dimensions of Finance where students can plan their career after the completion of their course of MBA.

While addressing the students, she congratulated everyone for choosing MBA as their career option. During her session, she highlighted the importance of financial aspects in each one's life and various career options one can go for as per their desires into the finance specialization. She created an awareness of various sectors and departments wherein the students can plan their career as per their own skill set and personal traits.

She explained how one can choose a right path in their career especially related to the field of Finance as there are plenty of choices available with the students but to make a wise decision is required to gain an expertise into that particular domain.

She introduced various sectors of financial market depending upon the frequency and potential impact and how the risk is associated with each sector. She gave an overview of stock markets, derivatives and investment banking and discussed the new opportunities in today's era.

Doubts were being cleared of the students and also an overview was given of how to choose a right career and plan wisely emphasizing into various domains.