

SARDAR VALLABHBHAI PATEL JAYANTI CELEBRATION

Your goodness is impediment in your way, so let your eyes be red with anger, and try to fight the injustice with a firm hand

D.Y. Patil Institute of Management celebrated the birth anniversary of the first Deputy Prime Minister of India, Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel in the presence of all the students and staff members. Prof. Kshitija More gave a very inspirational and motivational speech on this auspicious occasion sharing all his achievement and sacrifices he has made for our nation.

Vallabhbhai Jhaverbhai Patel ( 31 October 1875 – 15 December 1950) was an Indian barrister and statesman, one of the leaders of the Indian National Congress and one of the founding fathers of the Republic of India. He was a social leader who played a leading role in the country's struggle for independence and guided its integration into a united, independent nation. In India and elsewhere, he was often addressed as Sardar, which means Chief in Hindi, Urdu and Persian.

Prime Minister Narendra Modi inaugurated the world's tallest statue, one of Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel, in Surat today - October 31 which happens to be the freedom fighter's birth anniversary.

During this event, students were being made aware of his contribution towards our country and also were being taught about his dedications and hard work which led the nation towards a new hope and rising.

Along with all the faculty members and students, pledge was being taken on NATIONAL UNITY DAY. Students were also suggested about the books to read about Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel to come across many unknown facts about him.
